REPUBLIC, Wash. (Feb. 15, 2022) — Eagle Track Raceway is putting COVID-19 in its dust with the announcement of an aggressive 2022 schedule on the Republic, Wash. dirt oval.

Under the guidance of Eagle Track Promotions, the new leaseholder at the Ferry County-owned facility, a 12-event schedule kicks off May 21 and concludes Oct. 29.

"We are a Washington non-profit working to restore greatness to Northeast Washington motorsports," spokesperson Jason Pestka noted in an email.

The season opener is May 21 and sponsored by Spokane Teachers Credit Union, Pestka said. "We are working on a 'Faster Pastor,' 10 lap race for 5 local pastors," he added.

Sponsors have been lined up for a number of races and include:

- Anderson Grocery on June 4 where there will also be a candy toss for the kids at intermission.
- The Knotty Pine is sponsoring Prospector Day on June 11, with a car show down-

The race banquet is Dec. 3 at 4 pm at the Eagles Club in Republic.

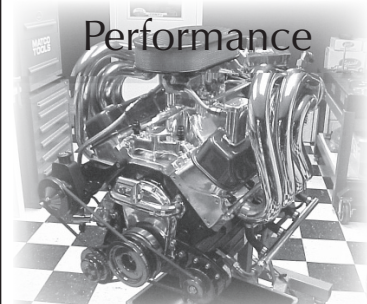

With the goal to grow racing interest at the track, Pestka said, “We are also building a Fever 4 to raffle and rent to our fan base.” The concept is called ‘U-Drive’ and is an entry level Ford Pinto. “We hope to generate excitement and grow our sport,” Pestka added.

While winter has the track deep in snow, Pestka said that is not deterring things. “We held a snowmobile event on Jan. 15th sponsored by Pro Plus Powersports.”

“We are also building a Fever-4 to raffle and rent to our fan base. We hope to generate excitement and grow our sport.”
